Part A. General Sportsbook House Rules

The Sportsbook House Rules (these "Rules") set out herein are subject to modification at any time at the sole discretion of the Sportsbook, subject to regulatory approval of the Navajo Nation Gaming Regulatory Office (“NNGRO”). These are general grading rules and any exceptions or variations to these rules for certain sports will be stated under the specific sports rules. The patron should therefore always consult the sport-specific rules for each sport as the sport-specific rules will take precedence over the General Rules. Where any matter is not covered by these Rules, the Sportsbook reserves the right to decide on an individual basis.

Section 1. Placing Bets

- 1.1 The Sportsbook reserves the right to refuse part or all of any wager, prior to its acceptance.
- 1.2 The Sportsbook may determine minimum and maximum wager amounts per patron on any events to include: all periods, segments, propositions, and future book wagers. Maximum payout by sport and by market will be established herein.
  - 1.2.1 The minimum wager is $5.00 (five dollars); and,
  - 1.2.2 The maximum event wager may not exceed a maximum payout of $100,000 (one hundred thousand dollars).
- 1.3 Notification of changes in posted odds or lines will be made in a timely manner and automatically on the electronic reader boards and in a timely manner. Non-posted printed media will be updated on a weekly basis and indicate issue date.
- 1.4 Wagers accepted will not be able to be changed or voided by the patron upon confirmation of the successfully placed wager, unless approved by management. Please check tickets before leaving the counter. Tickets go as written.
- 1.5 Wagers may be accepted at terms other than those displayed within the main Sportsbook rules or individual sports wagering rules at the discretion of the Sportsbook.
- 1.6 The Sportsbook may update, amend, edit and supplement these House Rules at any time, subject to approval by the NNGRO. Any such revision will be binding and effective immediately once such revisions are approved. A printed copy of the House Rules will be made available upon request . Any wagers accepted after the rule changes have been made available to patrons shall be governed by the revised House Rules.

- 1.7 The Sportsbook will not accept the past posting of wagers, in such cases the wager may be refunded, or where the outcome of the event is already known, in all such cases the wager will be refunded.
- 1.8 No proposition bets are to be made available for collegiate sporting events. “Proposition (Prop) bet” means a bet specifically naming an individual participant, or if a team sport, a specific position on a team, thus constituting a bet upon the actions of that individual or position, regarding the occurrence or non-occurrence of a certain outcome during an event that does not directly reflect the event’s final outcome.
- 1.9 The Sportsbook prohibits wagers on all high school and other amateur-youth sporting events.
- 1.10 The Sportsbook will not accept wagers from (1) Persons under the age of twenty-one (21); (2) Any person whose name appears on the exclusion or self-exclusion list; (3) Any person who is an agent or proxy for any other person and is wagering for such other person; (4) Any individual whose participation may undermine the integrity of the wagering, the sports event, or the other event or (5) Any person who is excluded from wagering for any other good cause.
- 1.11 Identification information is required to be presented at certain thresholds of wagers and payouts in accordance with Federal regulations.
- 1.12 Know Your Limits. Navajo Gaming is all about you PLAYing IT SAFE and keeping it FUN! If gambling becomes a problem, please contact 1-800-NEXT-STEP (Arizona) or text NEXT-STEP to 53342 (Arizona), 1-800-GAMBLER (New Mexico), or councilonproblemgambling.com.

Players may choose to self-exclude from the Navajo Nation Gaming Enterprise (NNGE) properties by contacting the NNGRO. Players may choose to self-exclude through the respective state department: <https://problemgambling.az.gov/self-exclusion> (AZ) or (505) 841-9700 (NM).
- 1.13 Platform provider maintains a record of all point spreads, odds, race results, final scores and related betting proposition statistics and outcomes to protect both the patron and the Sportsbook in case of obvious mechanical or human error.
- 1.14 Cancelled or voided selections will result in straight wagers being refunded unless an outcome for a specific market has been determined. Parlays that involve a cancelled or voided selection will stand as a parlay on the remaining selections, or as single in the case where one selection in a two-selection parlay is cancelled as a straight wager in the case.
- 1.15 All lost ticket requests must be placed on a Lost Ticket Claim Form with Players Club account number if available or a copy of acceptable ID. Lost tickets will be held for fifteen (15) days after the event ends before paid.

- 1.16 NNGE is not responsible for lost, stolen tickets, altered or damaged tickets. Damaged tickets may be reprinted if the ticket is original and has at least the serial numbers present. A photo, video or copy will not be honored as lost or damaged.
- 1.17 Winning tickets may be redeemed at the NNGE sportsbook or casino cage in the same state where purchased. Patrons may redeem winning tickets at either the sportsbook or the casino cage. Patrons have the option to mail in non-taxable winning tickets in accordance with printed instructions on the back of the ticket. All redemptions above $3,000 must be in person.
- 1.18 Winning tickets expire 365 days after the date of the event grading. Sportsbook vouchers expire 365 days after issuance.
- 1.19 Winning wagers are calculated by the Event Wagering System using American Odds. The events are posted and paid to the player in near real time as the bets are graded.

American Odds

Odds with a negative prefix such as '-110' inform the customer how much money they need to wager to win $100. In this example if the customer places a wager for $110 which wins at odds of -110, the Sports Gaming System will award $210 to the player, $100 of winnings plus their returned wager amount of $110.

Odds with a positive prefix such as '+300' inform the customer how much money they will win if they wager $100. In this example if the customer places a wager for $100 which wins at odds of +300, the Sports Gaming System will award $400 to the player, $300 of winnings plus their returned wager amount of $100.

Section 2. Confirmation of a Bet

- 2.1 Patrons shall place a wager only on their behalf. All wagers may be funded in cash, cash equivalents, voucher, or other method approved by the NNGRO.
- 2.2 The Sportsbook is not responsible for missing or duplicate bets made by the patron.
- 2.3 Unless accepted in error, once accepted, a wager will remain valid and cannot be cancelled. It is the responsibility of the patron to ensure details of each wager placed are correct. Under no circumstance will the Sportsbook accept any responsibility for any mistakes (perceived and actual), deriving from either errors as listed under 'Errors' as defined in these Rules, or any other reason, such as, but not limited to, incorrect listing of the odds/wagering objects.

Section 3. Grading of Bets

- 3.1 The Sportsbook reserves the right to remove or suspend a market/event at any given time. While a market is suspended, it will be unavailable for betting and cash out.
- 3.2 Potential payout on the bet slip is for information only. Potential payouts are reduced every time one of the selections is cancelled or pushed.
- 3.3 The Sportsbook reserves the right to withhold payment or cancel the bets for any event if there are concerns about the event's integrity, in part or in its entirety.
- 3.4 The Sportsbook reserves the right to withhold payment of bets or cancel bets where it believes there has been syndicated or coordinated betting activity.
- 3.5 The Sportsbook reserves the right to delay the grading of an outcome or an event until an official confirmation is published.
- 3.6 The Sportsbook may void bets when there is an obvious error. Obvious errors are mistakes in posting of lines, odds, or other, caused by human or system error, which significantly differ from the general market or are clearly erroneous. Examples include:
  - 3.6.1 There is reason to believe bets have been placed after an outcome is already known or after the backed selection has gained an advantage.
  - 3.6.2 Bets are confirmed with incorrect prices due to delayed or failing live coverage or latent data feed.
  - 3.6.3 Bets are accepted where prices or line/spread/total/handicap is an obvious error.
  - 3.6.4 Bets are placed after a public announcement has occurred in relation to the bet which significantly affects the odds.
  - 3.6.5 The wrong participant is quoted for any match or event. Bets placed on that participant will be voided. The Sportsbook reserves the right to void bets on other affected outcomes.
  - 3.6.6 There is a change in scheduled location for a game or series of games.
  - 3.6.7 An event does not follow the sport's generally accepted format and rules (e.g., unusual period length or game duration, points counting procedure, format of a match/game, less than the maximum allowed players, distance of a race, amounts of periods etc.).
  - 3.6.8 Bets are placed while system experienced technical problems, which otherwise would not have been accepted.

- 3.6.9 The outcome of a market cannot be verified.
- 3.6.10 Odds have been offered and bets accepted due to an error ("Error" is a mistake, misprint, misinterpretation, mishearing, misreading, mistranslation, spelling mistake, technical hazard, registration Error, transaction Error, manifest Error, force majeure, and/or similar.)
- 3.7 The Sportsbook may resettle winning wagers at the correct price when there is an obvious error.
- 3.8 In case of an incorrect grading of markets, the Sportsbook reserves the right to correct them anytime.
- 3.9 Incorrectly posted events, odds, or results will need to be brought to the attention of management to be adjusted or remedied, at management's discretion.
- 3.10 Results are taken from those published by the official governing body or by data providers. The Sportsbook recognizes those results achieved on the field. Results awarded by a sport federation without action and results decided by the outcome of disciplinary measures from the sport federation or another court of law over 24 hours after an event has finished are not considered.

Section 4. Dead-Heat Rule

- 4.1 If participants finishing positions cannot be separated in an event, then the Dead-Heat Rule will apply.
- 4.2 Dead-Heats are determined by dividing the stake by the number of tied participants.
- 4.3 When calculating how many places are paid, the Sportsbook counts as many selections as there are places, unless there is a Dead-Heat for the last available place. So, if three places are offered and two selections Dead-Heat for first, the next-finishing selection takes third place. However, if there are three places and three selections dead-heat for third, the Sportsbook pays out on all five selections finishing in the top three places with those dead-heating for third having their stake divided by three.

Section 5. Maximum Winnings

Maximum winnings are classified in the table below:

| Offering   | Maximum Winnings |
|--|------------------|
| NFL, MLB, NBA, NHL- Moneyline, Main Spread, Main Total | $100,000        |

|   |           |
|---|-----------|
| NFL, MLB, NBA, NHL- Other markets excluding player props    | $100,000 |
| NCAAF, NCAAB- Moneyline, Main Spread, Main Total            | $100,000 |
| PGA, Tennis, Soccer   | $100,000 |
| Other sports and markets including permissible player props | $100,000 |

Section 6. Related Contingencies

A related contingency occurs when part of a transaction affects the outcome of the remainder of the bet. Outside our specific product features which are purposed to facilitate parlays within the same event, our system will block related contingency bets when bet placement is attempted. However, if any such bet is accepted in error, the stake will be equally distributed across the related selections as singles.

Section 7. Guest Service Concerns

Management will make every reasonable effort to resolve guest service concerns. In the event a complaint by a Patron cannot be resolved by the Sportsbook or Casino Shift Manager, the Patron may contact the General Manager in writing.

If the complaint remains unresolved, the Patron may file a complaint with the NNGRO pursuant to the Navajo Nation Gaming Ordinance, Section 2080.

Part B. Main Markets Rules

The Sportsbook shall only accept wagers on events approved by the Department of Gaming. See below types of wagers accepted and rules:

**All listed markets may not be available at the Sportsbook.*

Section 1. Winner Markets

Predict the winner of the game/period/half/quarter/stated time range. If the market contains a Tie selection, then that will be graded as the winner in the event of a tied game/period/half/quarter/stated time range. Where a market does not have a Tie selection, bets will be pushed or dead heat.

Check individual sports for overtime rules.

Section 2. Spread / Handicap Markets

Predict the winner of the game/period/half/quarter/stated time range, applying the given spread (handicap). In handicap betting, a team is awarded a “virtual” goal/points/set/games advantage. This advantage will be added to the official scores for grading purposes.

Check individual sports for overtime rules.

Section 3. Total (Over/Under)

If a game is abandoned, bets will be cancelled unless grading is already determined.

Example 1:

Team A vs Team B, Basketball. Event Total points, Over/Under on 203.5 points. Customer places a bet on over 203.5 points. Customer’s bet will win only when the total points score by both teams aggregated is more than 203.5 points.

Example 2:

Player A vs Player B, Tennis. Customer bets on 1st set, total games over 10.5. Customer’s bet will win if first set finished with at least 11 games played, otherwise bet is lost.

Example 3:

Team A vs Team B, Soccer. Customer bets on total goals for Team A under 30.5. Customer’s bet will win if Team A scores 30 goals or less, otherwise bet is lost.

Example 4:

In a 3-way total, the line is set so that there is also a third outcome (equal or exact).

Team A vs Team B, Ice Hockey. Event Total has 3 outcomes: over 5 goals, under 5 goals or equal to 5 goals. There is no push outcome in this type of market, all bets either win or lose.

Section 4. Double Chance

A Double Chance market allows you to cover two of the three possible outcomes in a game with one bet. Double chance markets do not include overtime. The following options are available:

Home or Tie - if the result is either a Home win or a Tie, then bets on this option are winners.

Tie or Away - if the result is either a Tie or an Away win, then bets on this option are winners.

Home or Away - if the result is either a Home win or an Away win, then bets on this option are winners.

Section 5. Winning Margin

Predict the team to win the game and the margin of victory.

Example 1: Football, Team A vs Team B. If the customer believes that it will be a close game, but Team A will win, the customer can select Team A to win by 1-6-point Margin. By this, the customer's bet wins if Team A win by 1 up to 6 points. If Team A wins by 7 points or more, the customer's bet will lose.

Example 2: Basketball, Team A vs Team B. If the customer believes that Team A will easily win, the customer is able to place a bet on Team A to win by 21 or more points. Bet will win only if Team A wins by 21+ points difference.

Section 6. Half-time/Full-Time

Predict the result of a game at halftime and at the end of regular time. In baseball, half time is defined as the first 5 innings of a game. The possible outcomes of this market are the following (Half Time result / Full Time result):

Home Team / Home Team

Home Team / Tie

Home Team / Away Team

Tie / Home Team

Tie / Tie

Tie / Away Team

Away Team / Away Team

Away Team / Tie

Away Team / Home Team

Example 1:

In a soccer event Team A vs Team B, the customer chooses Home / Tie. The customer's bet will win if home team leads in the first half and the game ends in a tie. Extra time and penalty shootouts do not count.

Section 7. Race to X

Predict which team will be the first to score X points in the game. Race market may also refer to Runs (Baseball), Corners (Soccer), Games (Tennis), Goals (Hockey), Points (Volleyball) etc.

Race to X can be offered for the entire game or any stated period. For instance in a volleyball game '1st set race to X points' or in a basketball game '1st quarter race to 15 points'. In 2-way market, selections are home and away team (or Player 1, Player 2). If a game ends before any team reaches the specific number of points, the market is considered cancelled, and stakes are refunded. In a 3-way market in addition to home and away there is the 'none' option, and if neither team reaches the total then the 'None/Neither' selection will be graded as the winner.

To Score Point X

Predict which team will score the X point of the game. For example, in a basketball game if Team A has scored 24 points and Team B has scored 25 points, there is a current total of 49 points. The market 'To Score Point 50' will be won by the team that scores the next point, the point which takes the game total to 50.

Section 8. Highest scoring half/quarter/period

Predict in which half/quarter/period most points/goals will be scored. If two or more quarters/periods or halves have the same highest score, the Dead-heat rule applies unless equal outcome is offered. Check individual sport rules to determine if overtime is included / excluded.

Section 9. Odd/Even

Predict if accumulated goals/points/runs will add up to an odd or even number. When there is a zero score (for example no goals scored on a soccer game), Even will be declared the winner for grading purposes. If a game is abandoned, bets will be cancelled, unless an outcome is already determined. The market will be graded according to the specific terms of each sport.

Example 1:

Baseball, Team A vs Team B. The customer places a bet on Odd. The customer's bet will win only if the total number of accumulated runs in the game add up to an odd number.

Example 2:

Basketball event, Team A vs Team B. The customer places a bet on Even number of points. The customer's bet will win only if total number of accumulated points in the game will add up to an even number.

Section 10. To Qualify / Win the Cup / Advance to Next Round / Win the Group or Division.

- 10.1 A bet on a team or player to qualify to the next round of the tournament. Winner is the team/player advancing to the next round or winning the cup. Should a team be disqualified from the tournament prior to the game, and a bye is awarded, then all qualification bets will be cancelled.
- 10.2 If the referee abandons a game (e.g. due to crowd disturbances, unplayability of the pitch, or one team not having enough players to continue) bets will be graded based on decisions of the relevant governing body.

Section 11. Division, League and Conference betting

- 11.1 In case of a change in the official competition rules, during the competition, bets will be cancelled (for example if the number of teams relegated changes).
- 11.2 For grading purposes, the Dead-Heat rule will apply in the event of two or more teams tying in the standings, unless there is a play-off to separate them. Bets will stand on any team which does not complete all its fixtures. If a team is removed from the league before the season has started, then all bets on that market will be cancelled. If a team is removed or excluded during the season, due to any external reasons (for example due to debt), then all bets concerning this team will be cancelled.

Section 12. Head-to-Head (H2H)

Predict which one of the teams/competitors in the Head-To-Head gets the best finishing result/position/points. Both participants in a H2H must start for bets to stand, and at least one of the participants has to finish with an official result. Otherwise, all bets will be cancelled, and full stakes will be refunded.

Section 13. Correct scores

Predict the score at the end of regulation time, unless stated otherwise.

Section 14. In Running Bet (Live bet)

When scores are displayed in running, every effort is made to ensure the accuracy of the score, game situation, and clock. However, no liability is accepted for incorrect information displayed.

Section 15. Teasers

A teaser is a parlay bet where a patron can add extra points to his/her selection in a spread or totals market to increase the patron's chances of winning. If any of the patron's teased selections push, the Sportsbook ignores that selection for grading purposes and will be graded based on the selections which did not push, (e.g. a 4-team teaser where one team pushes becomes a 3 team teaser). This grading will be at reduced odds. If a teaser contains only one non-pushed selection, then the teaser is cancelled regardless of the outcome on that one selection. 3 selections are required for action where lines are teased by 10 points, all other teased lines require only two non-pushed selections for action.

Section 16. Same Game Parlay

A Same Game Parlay is a parlay bet where a patron makes multiple bet selections all occurring within the same event.

Section 17. Flex Parlay

A Flex Parlay is a parlay wager where a patron chooses multiple bet selections and a minimum number of correct selections needed to win the bet. A Flex Parlay may be placed when a patron chooses between 4 and 10 selections and each selection has minimum odds of -500. If a patron places a successful Flex Parlay, the patron will be paid out in an amount dependent on the number of winning selections. The more winning selections, the larger the payout to the patron.

PUSH/VOID/CANCELLED selections:

If a selection in a Flex Parlay is pushed, voided, or cancelled, the system will automatically adjust the Flex Parlay. For example, if a selection within a 5-selection Flex Parlay is pushed, voided, or cancelled, the Flex Parlay will adjust to a 4-selection Flex Parlay and the payout amounts will update to reflect this change. Any selection where the Dead Heat rule applies will be cancelled. If a Flex Parlay wager is left with less than 4 selections after selections are voided, cancelled, or pushed, the entire Flex Parlay wager will be automatically cancelled.

Part C. Sports Rules

Cancelled selections will result in straight wagers being refunded unless an outcome for a specific market has been determined. Parlays that involve a cancelled selection will stand as a parlay on the remaining selections, or as single in the case where one selection in a two-selection parlay is cancelled.

Exceptions to this are Teasers, the rules for which are explained in the Market Rules section.

Effects of scheduling changes depend on the nature of the change and the event/sport involved. See below specific sports rules that include specific rules on scheduling changes:

**All listed markets may not be available at the Sportsbook.*

Section 1. Football

General Rules

- All football markets are graded 'including overtime' unless otherwise stated.
- Markets which contain a 'tie' selection cannot be dead-heated or pushed.
- All markets on a postponed game may be cancelled if the event has been moved to more than 48 hours in the future. If a game is abandoned before the completion of regular time, then markets will be cancelled except for bets on any markets that have been unconditionally determined.
- If the teams are displayed incorrectly, the Sportsbook reserves the right to cancel betting.
- Bets on halves and quarters stand only if the period is completed unless the market result has been unconditionally determined.
- If a game venue is changed, bets based on the original listing may be cancelled.

Individual Player Props: Wagering is available on the performance of named players in a variety of categories (e.g., Passing Yards, Rushing Yards, Receptions, etc.) Players must be dressed and see field-time for bets to have action. There is no time limit as to how long a player must be on field. Push rules apply.

Touchdowns Scored: Contributions to Touchdowns Scored markets are only for players who receive and score when there is a passing play, or who carry the ball in to the endzone themselves.

Player to score First/Last/Next/Anytime Touchdown: Every effort will be made to quote odds for all possible participants. However, players who score the relevant touchdown will count as winners regardless of if they were listed or not in the relevant market.

Player Match Ups: Individual players' performances are matched for betting purposes in a player match up. Handicaps may be used and are applied to each player's actual score to determine the result. Push rules apply.

Winner / Outright [Futures]: Bets will be graded according to the final league position including Playoffs.
